

Save
the Date

1st Meeting of Experts on Congenital Porto-Systemic Shunts

29-30 March, 2019
Paris, France

Reasons to participate

The goals of this meeting are to:

- Share actual knowledge on those rare vascular malformations
- Discuss research, cases and management
- Create constructive interactions between all specialists interested in this fascinating topic

You should attend if you are interested in porto-systemic shunts as a:

- Physician or ...veterinarian
- Surgeon
- Radiologist
- Embryologist
- Pathologist
- Genetician
- Biologist
- Anyone interested in that field

IRCPSS

(International Registry on Congenital Porto-Systemic shunts)

Program

Recognized specialists from 9 countries will share their experience on the different aspects of this fascinating topic...

Friday 29th of March 2019

- From embryology to anatomic forms
- Lessons from animal and surgical models
- Pathophysiology of Congenital PortoSystemic Shunts

Saturday 30th of March 2019 (morning)

- Diagnosis and management
- Sharing experience
- Case based discussions

Organizing committee: Pr Stéphanie FRANCHI-ABELLA, Dr Florent GUERIN, Pr Emmanuel GONZALES, Pr Valérie MCLIN, Pr Dominique DEBRAY

The meeting will be held at the “Faculté de Médecine de Bicêtre”, Le Kremlin-Bicêtre, next to Paris, France.

For further information:

Contact: simona.korff@hcuge.ch

Free registration at: <https://goo.gl/forms/LRLLpS3jTybZDSOi1>